

BAKER COLLEGE
Program Information
General Studies
Bachelor of General Studies

Campus: Online.

Program Description

The General Studies program is an online program designed for the working professional who has significant work experience, previous college credit and desires to earn a bachelor's degree. An academic advisor and student work together to combine various disciplines resulting in an individualized plan of study based on past education, career goals, intellectual interests, or preparation for graduate education.

Printed: 2015/01/08