

BAKER COLLEGE
Program Information
Accounting
Associate of Business Degree

Campus: Online.

Program Description

Accounting is a vital function for any business, regardless of size or complexity. This program prepares students for entry-level positions in the accounting field as well as for advanced study in the discipline. Students completing this degree will develop the skills necessary to record, present, and analyze financial data and evaluate the operational performance of a variety of entities.

Printed: 2015/01/08